 If AI seems a little spooky, that’s because it’s rooted in the occult. Conrad Flynn explains.

Conrad Flynn is a writer and producer who recently launched his history-themed Substack “The Flynn Effect” (theflynneffect.substack.com), which will focus on secret histories in entertainment, literature, politics, and tech (a handy commentary guide to the subjects and references in this interview will be immediately published there). He is the grandson of Hollywood tough-guy actor Robert Conrad and Hollywood nice-guy publicist Harry Flynn.

His upcoming podcast on the history of rock and the occult, Running with the Devil, is in production and is co-created with the great American rock critic Stephen Thomas Erlewine (<https://sterlewine.substack.com/>), the supervising producer of The Osbournes and host of the Culture Pop Podcast Sue Kolinsky (skolinsk.bsky.social), and Emmy Award-winning creator of The Osbournes R. Greg Johnston.

You can also follow the gang at <https://x.com/conradflynn> and <http://x.com/sterlewine> on X, but also on Instagram, Bluesky, and generally wherever you get your posts.

Ephesians 6:12
"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

I'm so grateful that finally people are getting into the connection between politics and spirituality. You can't understand politics without the basic understandings of good and evil. And you can't understand spirituality without the context of events taking place in our world. Be blessed everyone and be rewarded for searching for truth and clarity.

In the 1990s, they used "Satanic Panic" as an excuse to cover-up the Luciferian Elites, who kidnapped, abused, and sacrificed kids. The Franklin Scandal and Cover-up reveals just how messed up this country is.

I'll tell y'all what: I was a diehard liberal before C-vid, and during the shutdowns and the v-cine controversies, I found myself questioning everything I believed and thought about the state of our country and our government. And, like all good liberals, I loathed Tucker Carlson, absolutely loathed him. But a friend of mine, maybe a year and a half ago sent me a link to Carlson's interview of Aaron Rogers; ever since I heard that, I've been team Tucker. We need more people, especially conscientious, intelligent public figures, who are willing to admit when they were wrong and are interested in their own continued growth as well as that of their ...

You know, I'm 31 years old. I'm a preachers son, and most of my life I was just playing along with the "religion" thing to keep the peace. When I was a kid, AI didn't exist the Internet was brand new, we still had corded phones, etc. Revelation always sounded ridiculous no matter how it was explained to me, but now with nuralink, social media, war and rumors of wars it seems like it's all starting to make sense. And it's literally biblical to watch happen in real time. The time of confusion. Predicting Empty Promise's of peace in the middle east 2000 years ago. UFO's, drugs, influencers, censorship, the list goes on. If you don't see it today ...
